Hello Rachel

Please see attached scan/plan of Spienddu.

The large out lying line is the actual plot of 7 acres owned by me.

The smaller red line you referred to is the existing bungalow plus the permitted LDP area.

The black line that I have drawn is the area I would like to be included within the revised LDP.

This is where the existing 1800s barns and outbuildings already stand fully intact.

As you can see this does not impact on residents and is within the properties that have been built in past years.

Garnfoel properties sit much deeper into the land. Spien Road properties and the Public footpath are also out further than the line I would like to be included.

Thank you

Sharon
