Please note that the Inspector will not have access to comments you may have made in response to previous consultations.

Why is there no mention of Special Landscape Areas (SLAs) in this LDP?

Carmarthenshire previously has had specific areas designated as an SLA, throughout the county.

The current plan, without mention of protecting SLAs, allows unwanted development - such as the new plan to install Pylons, especially in the Tywi Valley - to go ahead more easily, without necessarily taking residents' feedback into account, or considering environmental factors etc.

You say 'protect and enhance the distinctive landscape' but this is not specific enough. Allowing pylons and wind turbines goes against everything you're saying here about protecting the character of this area. Not to mention the delicate balance of nature, the river floodplain, and movement of people etc.

From the Carmarthenshire 2014 Local Development Plan:

'Inappropriate development continues to threaten the conservation of this outstanding landscape, hence the reason for its designation.'

This still applies, and these areas MUST be protected.

Cllr Ann Davies, cabinet member for rural affairs and planning policy says a new proposal will develop "a landscape character policy, which will strengthen the policy on landscapes whilst affording protection for the whole of Carmarthenshire under the new policy."

- Can we see this policy?
- Where is this policy?

Below from the linked file:

<https://naturalresources.wales/media/680613/landmap-guidance-note-1-landmap-slas-2017.pdf>

4.1 Potential role of SLAs There may be more than one role for an identified SLA • To recognise and protect (through development management) locally valued landscapes important for their distinctive character, qualities and sense of place/bro Page 4 of 25 www.naturalresourceswales.gov.uk • To influence positive landscape planning. For example by producing design guidance to enhance landscape character or to target land management grants towards the conservation of special landscape features recognised within the SLA • To raise understanding and appreciation of the importance of local landscapes by communities, visitors and the wider public

I would like the 18 Special Landscape Areas to be reinstated as they were previously, instead of being a vague instruction without specific areas to be identified, which may allow the council to get away with allowing building of such structures that could damage the environment, and the quality of life for residents.

Removing the policy effectively tells developers and visitors that Carmarthenshire no longer considers these areas worthy of special designation and our communities no longer have special regard for these landscapes.

The SLAs are there for a reason, as mentioned above, and I believe it should be specified that any changes to the landscape such as pylons or wind turbines being installed down the Tywi Valley should be 100% disallowed and an alternative - if there must be one - should be in place. Ideally they should not be allowed at all and the offshore option should be the only one. This is how specific the SLA wording should be. It should be a legal status that no pylons, wind turbines or mobile phone towers should be added to the existing landscape, without a very good reason, and even then, absolutely nowhere near people's homes, farms, schools, villages etc.

When we applied for planning permission to rebuild a derelict barn, we were instructed to use similar materials, as also for an extension we were told to use slate, to keep in the character of the area. That was because of the SLAs. Perhaps these ideas are not of importance to the council anymore. Attached supporting documents are: d

The Carmarthenshire Revised Local Development Plan (LDP) will be examined by an independent Inspector appointed by the Welsh Government. It is the Inspector's job to consider whether the Plan meets procedural requirements and whether it is sound.

'Sound' may be considered in this context within its ordinary meaning of 'showing good judgement' and 'able to be trusted'. The questions or 'tests' which the Inspector will consider in deciding whether the Plan is sound are:

1. Does the plan fit? (i.e. is it consistent with other plans?)
2. Is the plan appropriate? (i.e. is it appropriate for the area in the light of the evidence?)
3. Will the plan deliver? (i.e. is it likely to be effective?)

More information on the soundness tests and procedural requirements is provided in the Planning Inspectorate's LDP Examinations Procedural Guidance.

If you are making an objection, you should say why you think the Plan is unsound and how the Plan should be changed to make it sound.

Where you propose a change to the Plan it would be helpful to make clear which test(s) of soundness you believe the Plan fails. If your comment relates to the way in which the Plan has been prepared or consulted on, it is likely that your comments will relate to 'procedural requirements'.

Failing to identify a test will not mean that your comments will not be considered, providing it relates to the Plan or its supporting documents. You should include all your comments on the form, using accompanying documents and supporting evidence where necessary.

Fodd bynnag, gallai fod yn ddefnyddiol o bosibl i ddefnyddio dwy ffurflen ar wahân os ydych yn dymuno siarad mewn gwrandawriad am rai gwrthwynebiadau ond nid rhai eraill.*

If you seek more than one change to the Plan, it is not always necessary to complete separate forms for each part of your representation. It may, however, be helpful to use two separate forms if you wish to speak at a hearing about some objections but not others.

Where a group shares a common view on how it wishes the Plan to be changed, it would be helpful for that group to send a single form with their comments, rather than for a large number of individuals to send in separate forms repeating the same point. In such cases the group should indicate how many people it is representing and how the representation has been authorised. The group's representative (or chief petitioner) should be clearly identified.
