No problem.

I was discussing all of the proposed sites situated behind Penyfan quarry, A,B,C and D, as the affect the same residents, same roads, it is essentially the same area.

I'm not sure what other sites you are referring to?

Sincerely

Emma

Many thanks for your prompt response.

The LDP proposes a range of sites from housing, employment, mixed use etc throughout the whole County. Your comments seem to relate to one specific site rather than all sites contained within the LDP.

Whilst I can allocate your comment to the LDP as a whole, the comments you have submitted would be better placed against a specific site.

If you are able to provide a site address, or a description of the proposed use of the site you are objecting to, that would be helpful to ensure your comments are given appropriate weight during the public examination into the LDP.

Kind regards,

The Forward Planning Section

Good morning,

I refer to the representation you have made to the Carmarthenshire Local Development Plan. Could you please confirm which site(s) you are objecting to, as you have not mentioned this in your submission.
